

MARKETING
THOUGHTS

from

MENTOR

#4
IN A SERIES

Reprinted with permission of MENTOR,
official publication of NAFI,
National Association of Flight Instructors

Create a Professional Impression

Do you anticipate your students' needs and problems? Do you offer a full range of opportunities and solutions? If customers are not aware that they can pay for their training in low, level, affordable monthly payments, you are missing out. Because most customers will not ask.

Today, over 1,200 flight schools use Pilot Finance programs to sign up new customers, reduce dropout rates and increase revenue. You can too, with no cost or liability to your school.

Call us: 1-800-667-0201

Visit us: www.pilotfinance.com

Write Us: info@pilotfinance.com

Flight Training Financing WORKS!
Make it work for you.

themarketingcorner

A PROFESSIONAL, FULL-SERVICE OPERATION WILL OFFER CUSTOMERS WHAT THEY REALLY NEED.
AFFORDABLE FLIGHT TRAINING.

Years ago, car dealers just sold cars. If you wanted to buy one, you either needed a big bag of cash, or you had to visit your banker to arrange a loan. Today, any car dealer can offer you 20 DIFFERENT WAYS to finance or lease a car. Things changed to make it easier for the customer to drive away in a new car.

Now it is your turn to make it easier for eager prospects to realize their dream of flying. As a professional, full-service instructor you can offer a number of payment and financing options. Show your customers YOU CARE about ALL of their needs. When you do, you'll have more new students and fewer dropouts!

